

October 11, 2025: On the Response from the Spirit of Donald Trump

We left the house for about an hour today to run two scheduled errands.

My wife and I experienced very clear 'signs' that were abnormal to our community today.

The spirit of Donald Trump immediately responded with the following messages to me and my wife as we travelled to two stops near our home:

1. The devil's horns are sending vagrants to set our house on fire;
2. My wife is about to become a widow;
3. Our 'power bill' is due and is being paid; and
4. The hands of Donald Trump are arriving to pick up my body from a fire.

This is the spirit of Donald Trump. This is the message that I face today in my life.

I swear each of these facts to be true and correct.

(Donald Trump is, in fact, attempting to embody Satan and threaten his way through the innocent people of the world.)(Fuck you, Donald Trump!)(May your spirit ROT in hell!)
